A BRILLIANT EVENT.

Madame Rella Receives an Ovation at the Opera House-A Flac Musical Pro-

An audience which by its size and makeup would honor any vocalist or any entertainers in the land filled the Opera House last night. The announcement that Madame Rolla would give a concert, with able assistance, created a pleasureable expectancy several weeks ago, and the interest increased till it culminated in the flattering reception at the theatre.

Madame Rolla was assisted by Mr. D. Madame Rolla was assisted by Mr. D. Bullock, of Pittsburgh, baritone; Miss Grace Kelly, pianist; Prof. Hermann Schockey, violinist, and the Arion society and Opera House orchestra. able,

Madame Rolla sang the grand aria,
"Reine de Saba," of Gounod's, and in response to an encore so imperative that it could not be silenced by repeated reappearances without another song, she gave "The Last Rose of Summer." Later she sang two of Bambor's romances, and was again encored, and her third appearance was with Lawrence Kellie's beautiful ballad, "The Sloeping Tide." Her voice is as brilliant and pleasing as ever. She was the recipient of rich floral offerings at every appearance, and in one large bunch of Jacqueminot roses was an enameled paney set minot roses was an enameled pausy set with diamonds, a beautiful little gem. All the soloists received beautiful flowers.

Mr. Bullock was well received, and sang "Only to Love," by Santley, with good style and effect. Miss Kelly played a fantasic of Rafl's. Her style is corgood style and effect. Miss Kelly played a fantasie of Raff's. Her style is correct and her fingering skillful. Mr. Diegmiller and the Arion sang the baritone solo and chorus, "The Beggar's Love," by R. Graner. Mr. Diegmiller, as well as the chorus, made a distinct hit, and so did the solo of Prof. C. A. Schaefer, with the chorus by the society and orchestral accompaniment. The orchestra opened and closed the programme besides. It was composed of fourteen pieces, and it was a source of bride to all that such an orchestra and such talent belonged to Wheeling. Prof. Schockeygave on his violina "Concerto," by de Beriot, and made new admirers as well as increasing the admiration of old ones by the fifieness of his technique and the expressiveness of his music. He was enthusiastically recalled several He was enthusiastically recalled several times.

A BIG CONTRACT SECURED By a New and Thriving Wheeling Industry-A Pine Showing.

The Bostwick Fire Proof Steel Lath Company, of this city, secured the contract for the lathing of the new Collier Hotel, in Atlanta, Ga., which is one of the finest hotels in the south, and will cost nearly a million dollars. The concost nearly a million dollars. The contract calls for 12,000 square vards, or three car loads, of the Wheeling product. The contract was awarded over every known metal lath, all having competed with Wheeling. The company here is about completing a contract with the Bostwick Metal Lath Company of New York for two car loads of the Wheeling lath. The work is only delayed by the excessive demand on the sheet iron mills, all of which are overrun with orders. This shows well for the iron business, and if there is anything in the idea that the iron trade is the best barometer of the condition of the country in general, it indicates that the country in general, it indicates that this is a prosperous year.
